What's New and Exciting!

For Organ and Orchestra

- CROWN HIM WITH ENDLESS PRAISE!

- A Medley of Triumph and Celebration for Organ and Orchestra

This bold and declamatory arrangement is tailor-made for Easter Sunday as well as any other non-seasonal service during the year which calls for a strong statement of faith and victory! Using the great Camille Saint-Saëns “Organ” Symphony No. 3 (Movement IV) as a classical frame-work and then incorporating the two hymns “O WORSHIP THE KING!” and “CROWN HIM WITH MANY CROWNS!” this arrangement has a grand, majestic coronation feel and allows ample room for both organ and orchestra to have their “voices” heard separately as well as together. Whether your group is small, medium or large, this chart will work very well for a modest-sized group of core players as well as for a full orchestra. In addition, all of the usual optional instrument doublings are available to cover for a missing part or player. The organ part also contains helpful registration suggestions which may be easily adapted for use by any organist. Boldly and majestically proclaiming our risen Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, “CROWN HIM WITH ENDLESS PRAISE!” promises to lift the spirit and thrill the heart while inspiring God’s people to offer Him their highest in praise and adoration!

Length: 4:20

Keys: C and Ab (concert)

Price: $75.00

The Organ and Orchestra Series

This exciting series offers music which combines the organ, with its' many layers of stops and tone colour, with the orchestra, with its' vast array of instrumental combinations. Be it a full-blown pipe organ or an electronic instrument, the possibilities are truly endless when – what Mozart called the “KING OF INSTRUMENTS” – is combined with orchestral instruments. To assist the Organist, the Organ Score includes helpful registration suggestions to guide toward a successful presentation of the arrangement.
